

The chairman, Raj Nani Gupta and manager Sanjeev Gupta were happy to see the efforts of the hangings. They were also asked to

■ The need to promote greenery was stressed on the occasion

Kulachi Hansraj Model holds Eco Club event

HT Correspondent

NEW DELHI: Kulachi Hansraj Model School, Ashok Vihar, organised the induction ceremony of the Eco Club to promote a green earth.

The Eco Club is named 'Vasundhara' and the guiding thought behind it is: "We are a part of Mother Earth, which in turn is a part of us."

The ceremony was presided over by Dr BC Sabata, senior scientific officer, department of environment, government of the NCT, Delhi. He, along with principal Sneh Verma and members of the club lit the lamp of knowledge. The principal of the school presented a small plant to the guest. This was followed by a Prakriti Vandana sung by Rashi and Amrit from Classes 11 and 12 respectively.

The principal addressed the gathering, asking students to plant a tree on their birthday and nurture it.

Vasudha Kalra was inducted as the new president and Rashi Jain as the vice-president.

Maxfort School Pitampura holds exposition

NEW DELHI: Maxfort Pitampura, organised an exposition titled Prastuti or 'Array of learning.'

In the exposition, the presented various projects included explicatory innovative projects, ill charts and live presentations. Many different themes palette of hues, means lines and curves and of science were taken

Mona Lakhanpal, Maxfort School, Parv interacted with the who explained their and answered queries competence.

■ Children presented projects, charts, m

TOON ZONE

Bill Watterson

picture